President Bill Jezek welcomed everyone.

Jim Colley introduced the speaker: Bobbi Brooks and Denise Klaus

Bobbi and Denise presented the ‘Watch UR BAC’ Program. They work for Texas A&M AgriLife Extension Service and are based in College Station.

The program shared tips and tricks involving drug and alcohol awareness. They showed us how innocent looking items, intended for honorable purposes, can be used to store and hide drugs and alcohol. Also showed ways to make alcohol from ordinary items, such as hand sanitizer. They were extremely knowledgeable and answered lots of questions. We also learned of the 911 Lifeline Law. This law states that the first person that calls 911 to report alcohol poisoning, AND waits until medical help arrives, will not be charged, even if they are underage.

More information may be obtained by emailing Bobbi at Bobbi.Brooks@ag.tamu.edu.
